

BETTIE KEMP

info@elysian-management.com

072-891-3705

Agents: Elysian Management

Profile

Age: 70
Height (m): 1,63
Height (ft.): 5'4"
Eyes: Blue
Hair: Brown

Languages

English
Afrikaans

Skills

Actor
Voice Over
Presenter
Emcee

Sizes

Available on Request

Bettie Kemp works as a TV presenter, actress, and drama/documentary producer for RSG – the national Afrikaans radio service, where she is also a news reader and continuity announcer.

She is an experienced commercial voice artist. For the past few years she can also be heard as the Afrikaans corporate voice of Standard Bank.

Bettie has appeared in several stage shows at the national art festivals for which she received various awards and nominations amongst others: the kykNET Fiësta award in 2010/2011 for Best Actress in a supporting role in “Death of a Salesman/Dood van ‘n Verkoopman” directed by Bobby Heaney as well as Vita Nominations for her one woman stage show “Komnader” (Best Actress and Best Production).

At Woordfees and Aardklop 2012 her stage show “TaMiem van Swellendam” played to sold out houses and standing ovations.

Bettie has also appeared in the TV series “Villa Rosa” (2011) and “Binnelanders” (2012).

Previous awards include an Artesfor Best Radio Actress; anMNet/Via Afrikamerit award “Journalist of the Year” and SAB’s “Sports journalist of the Year” for a documentary RSG programme.